

EMMA KINGSVINE

SHE / HER ▪ XE / XYR

As an artist and academic, I deeply value the powers of creative collaboration, professional presentation, and intriguing innovation. Within the scope of my work, I have amassed experience as an actor, director, choreographer, educator, and manager, a combination of skills that have allowed me to successfully work with companies and communities alike. I have intense focus and ambition, and pride myself on my communication skills. As a theatrical storyteller, I have amassed the raw materials necessary to seamlessly join any company of professionals and become a vital asset to any organization. I am a certified Lessac Practitioner for Body and Voice, and am currently training to become a certified Intimacy Director.
